

+
Second National

Anglo-Catholic

Exploring spirituality, mission and worship in Aotearoa today.

Hui

+ Thursday 15 – Saturday 17 August 2019.

+ Venue: St. Peter's on Willis Street, Wellington
(and other city venues)

+ Guest Speaker: The Right Reverend Stephen Cottrell
(Bishop of Chelmsford, UK)

Bishop Stephen will lead five sessions, reflecting on approaches to evangelism, mission and worship that flow from a catholic and sacramental tradition.

+ Other sessions will include:
Millennials and Sacraments
Inter-faith Relations
Suzanne Aubert – Wellington's saint in waiting
Music as an expression of the human spirit

+ Daily Eucharist and inspiring worship

+ The $60 registration fee covers morning and afternoon teas, two lunches, one dinner and transport to and from the Home of Compassion, with an early bird price of $50 if paid before 31 May.

For more information, visit:
movementonline.org.nz/anglocatholicui